

Licorice Race

A timed event where the rider starts on horseback at the line and ride around a barrel positioned at the opposite end of the arena then over to the licorice piece dangling from a post at the side of the arena.

Without using their hands the rider must take a bite of the licorice or remove it entirely from the clip. They then cross the timer line.