

Scudda Ho

A timed event where the horse and rider cross the timer line and weave through the poles in the pattern shown.

Then over the jump in the middle of the arena

Then weave through the poles on the opposite side of the arena

And finally back over the jump again and cross the timer line.

Any knocked down pole or jump rail will be a 5 second penalty and not going over the jump or around the poles will be a no time.